

WOLLUMBIN (MT WARNING) VIEW CIRCUIT

This drive takes you around the base of the Tweed volcanic caldera offering stunning views of the iconic Wollumbin (Mt Warning) and the spectacular caldera escarpment.

From Murwillumbah, follow Tourist Drive 32 to Wollumbin (Mt Warning) National Park for a rainforest boardwalk, and then onto the historic village of Uki where you can visit the restored Uki Buttery, now host to a thriving arts and craft community. Leaving Uki, towards Kyogle, turn right onto Byrill Creek Rd and head towards Tyalgum (there is a 10km section that is unsealed).

The entrance to Mebbin National Park is on the left where you can take the Byrill Creek walk to the stand of fig trees. Continue on the road to Tyalgum, follow Tourist Drive 36 as you go, and then on to Chillingham where you can wander through the Bushtucker Garden. At the Chillingham Bridge, the option is to turn left to Natural Bridge (16km) and Nerang or turn right to return to Murwillumbah via Tourist Drive 34.
